WRIT PETITION No.26912 of 2005

ORDER: (Per the Hon'ble Sri Justice A. Gopal Reddy)

The petitioner sent a fax message on 10.12.2005 to the Chief Justice stating that one Akula Madhu kidnapped his eldest daughter-Lavanya; that he gave a complaint to I Town Police, Nizamabad; and that the police arrested Madhu and sent him for remand. On such remand, Madhu obtained bail and from then he is threatening him and his family members and the same was reported to the police. While so, on 26.11.2005, Madhu again kidnapped his eldest daughter and therefore again a complaint was lodged with the police on 26.11.2005 at 12 noon and since then he is receiving threatens to withdraw the case. The said fax message was treated as a taken up writ petition and notice was sent to the respondents.

The learned Government Pleader for Home filed the final report in Crime No.293 of 2005, which was registered for the offence under Section 366-A IPC based on the complaint made by the petitioner, referring the case as mistake of facts. The affidavit of compromise, dated 27.02.2007, signed by the petitioner is also enclosed along with the final report. The said affidavit of compromise discloses that the petitioner's daughter on attaining the age of majority married Madhusudhan Rao @ Madhu on 16.11.2006 and therefore, he wanted to withdraw the complaint registered against the said Madhu as both of them are living together peacefully at the house of Madhu, whom he accepted as his son-in-law.

In view of the same, no cause survives in this writ petition and the same is accordingly dismissed.
